

providing the dual 4-piston calipers up front, as well as a single for the rear, on all of the new models, while the wheels and rotors can be ordered in matching combinations.

To get a better idea of just what emerged from that late, smokey night in the saloon, call 'em at 909-681-2900, or surf on over to www.vengeancemotorcycles.com, for a view of all the models and stats. You can find one of their dealers located all over the U.S. of A., from Anchorage to Florida. There ya have it. Sorry novel fans, there just wasn't any cattle rustlin', not a single shootout and no lynchings, just motorcycles—and that ain't half-bad...
